Defeat may serve as well as victory
To shake the soul and let the glory out.

When the great oak is straining in the wind,
The toughie drink in new beauty, and the trunk
Sinks down a deeper root on the windward side.

Only the soul that knows the mighty grief
Can know the mighty rapture. Sorrows come

To stretch out spaces in the heart of joy.
("Victory in Defeat" by Edwin Markham).

There was a man
Who made his living
By painting roses
Upon silk.

He sat in an upper chamber
And painted,
And the noises of the street
Meant nothing to him.

When he heard bugles, and pipes and drums,
He thought of red, and yellow, and white roses
Fading in the sunshine,
And smiled as he worked.

He thought only of roses,
And silk.
When he could get no more silk
He stopped painting
And only thought
Of roses.

The day the conquerors
Entered the city,
The old man
Lay dying.
He heard the bugles and drums,
And wished he could paint the roses
Hurrying into sound.

We Appreciate Them

THE OTHER DAY WE ASKED A MAN FOR HIS PRINTING AND HE TOLD US:

"OH, OUR PRINTING DOESN'T AMOUNT TO MUCH. ALL WE HAVE IS A FEW SMALL ORDERS, AND NONE OF THEM EVER RUN INTO ANYTHING THAT LOOKS LIKE MONEY."

THOSE LITTLE ORDERS ARE THE KIND THAT MAKE OUR BUSINESS.

MOST OF OUR BUSINESS IS IN THE PRINTING OF LETTERHEADS, ENVELOPES, CIRCULARS, POSTERS, OFFICE FORMS, AND OTHER SMALL ORDERS.

WE APPRECIATE A SMALL ORDER AS WELL AS WE DO A BIG ONE.

SO, IF YOU HAVE ANY SMALL ORDERS FOR PRINTING, WE WANT YOU TO KNOW THAT WE ARE GLAD TO GET THEM. WE APPRECIATE THEM JUST AS MUCH—AND TAKE JUST AS GOOD CARE OF THEM—AS IF THEY ACTUALLY AMOUNTED TO HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS.

ONTARIO VOTES OCTOBER 6th

Half a million voters in Ontario are being passionately wooed these days for the votes which will elect the province's 26th Legislature. Despite the heat of professional argument there is considerable indifference among the rank and file of the people. The reason is probably the lack of outstanding or clear-cut campaign issues.

Premier Hepburn says he needs a mandate to collect unpaid succession duties; to justify his C.I.E. policy and to vindicate his reputation of power contracts signed by the provincial Hydro system. "Beverage rooms" are also being widely discussed especially in rural constituencies. The argument on these issues Mr. Hepburn is properly making capital of the financial record of his Government with its balanced budget and its recent lowering of taxation. But as pointed out in this column some weeks ago there is not one of these matters that is pressing enough to justify an election or to warrant an appeal to the country a full year earlier than need be.

As to succession duties it is surely obvious that Premier Hepburn already has ample power in the courts to collect any and all moneys due to the province may have been defrauded in the past.

As to what the outcome will be, few will hazard an authoritative prediction. The bulk of the province is normally Conservative in its politics and Conservatives had previously held office for almost a generation before the rise of the present Premier to power three years ago. In Mr. Hepburn's favor are the return of good times to most parts of the province.

WOMEN OF NINE NATIONS ASK EQUALITY IN LEAGUE COVENANT

Geneva, Sept. 26th.—A lively campaign in connection with the question of the status of women reached a climax today when representative women from nine countries met under the auspices of the Women's Consultative Committee—a body set up at the request of the League of Nations—and drew up a letter recommending four amendments to the League Covenant. We believe the women's letter contains, that these four proposed equality amendments to the Covenant must eventually become a part of the Covenant if the League of Nations is to endure. We ask you to take whatever steps you may deem advisable to bring this to pass.

Meanwhile 15 states, members of the League, who were responsible in the first instance for placing women's status upon the agenda of this year's League of Nations Assembly have been at the invitation of the Czechoslovakian delegation called together to decide upon the case for "equality between sexes" to put before the first commission of the League when it meets tomorrow morning.

In the above article taken from the Christian Science Monitor we see a new strength that will aid the cause of World Peace.

PREMIER ABERHART IN STRATHMORE

Premier Aberhart will address a public meeting in Hirtle's Theatre in the near future.

This will afford an excellent opportunity for the Premier to discuss frankly his plan of action and to answer fair and thoughtful questions, which no doubt he will be asked. It is of the greatest importance that he answers these honestly and fearlessly and not evade the issue as undoubtedly there will be persons present, sincere in their desire to get at the truth of the problems so vital and so important to the mind of all. While we with others, cannot agree with the Premier's line of action, he should be given a quiet and dignified hearing. Anyone who does less is belittling himself more than the Speaker.

There will no doubt be a packed house, and the audience will comprise many non-Social Creditors who are sincerely desirous of getting or giving the truth on the various political phases.

It is greatly to be desired that the entire proceedings be conducted in a calm and gentlemanlike manner. He who does less spoils all.

A. T. A. MEETING

A meeting of the Bow Valley A. T. A. Local was held in Strathmore High School at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 21.

The officers for the ensuing year were elected. Mr. Hoover, president, Mr. Crowther, vice president, Mr. Eyles, secretary, and Miss Morrison Press Representative.

The teachers discussed the Inter-School Sports meet to be held in Strathmore in October.
